The image shows a screenshot of an X Terminal window. The title bar at the top displays the time 13:32, network status (3G), battery level, and the window title 'X Terminal'. The terminal content shows a BusyBox v1.10.2 shell (ash) with the prompt '~ $'. The user has entered the command 'root', and the prompt has changed to '~#', indicating root access. The terminal also shows the BusyBox version and Debian release information.

```
BusyBox v1.10.2 (Debian 3:1.10.2.legal-1osso26+0m5) built-in shell (ash)
Enter 'help' for a list of built-in commands.
